ANIMAL HEARING BOARD

* BEFORE THE
* BOARD OF APPEALS
* OF
* BALTIMORE COUNTY
* Case No. CBA-12-026

* * * * *

SETTLEMENT ORDER

Upon consideration of the agreement reached between Ms. Papay and the Animal Hearing Board in Case No. CBA-12-026 (Animal Hearing Board Case No. DD3701) which was put on the record in open court on January 18, 2012, IT IS, this 31st day of January, 2012, by the Board of Appeals,

ORDERED:

1. Ms. Papay, individually and/or through the moniker Dogs In Danger Rescue, will cease and desist the rescuing of, fostering of, and/or any vaccination services of any animals in Baltimore County;
2. This cessation of activities includes Ms. Papay's current address, 1050 Marleigh Circle, Baltimore, Maryland 21204, or any other future addresses she may maintain in Baltimore County;
3. Ms. Papay terminates any medium that promotes or advertises "Dogs-in-Danger Rescue", or any similarly named entities, that references Baltimore County in general, or the provision of services herein described specifically. This termination includes, but is not limited to, any websites dedicated exclusively to or ancillary to "Dogs-in-Danger Rescue"; any Facebook page(s) or similar social networking site(s); or any adopt-a-pet search indices. Baltimore County will not require Ms. Papay cease the maintenance of any of these websites, but that they shall not include any information, addresses, and/or other references to Baltimore County.

4. Ms. Papay cease any activities, individually and/or through the moniker Dogs In Danger Rescue, that include the transfer, sale and/or adoption of any animals within Baltimore County.
5. Should Ms. Papay, individually and/or through the moniker Dogs In Danger Rescue, wish to continue any of the above-referenced services, she agree to become a properly licensed holding facility;
6. Lastly, should Ms. Papay fail to adhere to any of the conditions set forth herein, she become immediately liable for all suspended fines up until the present day, January 18, 2011.
